

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 1

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

The rose

The rose plant

rose plant.

smells nice.

has thorns.

This is a

Exercise 2

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Birds have

Crows are birds.

wings and feathers.

Birds build

black.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 3

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

nice place to play.

us fruits.

Trees give

in the sea.

The beach is a

The ships are

Exercise 4

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

school by bus.

flowers in the park.

pet cat.

We go to

Don't pluck the

I have a

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 5

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

cricket yesterday.

to be quiet.

in India.

We live

The teacher told us

Raj played

Exercise 6

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

When we open the tap,

We write with water flows out.

A tortoise

moves slowly.

a pencil.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 7

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

with me?

A shopkeeper

We eat vegetables

Do you want to come to be healthy.

sells many things.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Answers

Exercise 1: (A) This is a rose plant. (B) The rose smells nice. (C) The rose plant has thorns.

Exercise 2: (A) Crows are black. (B) Birds build nests. (C) Birds have wings and feathers.

Exercise 3: (A) The beach is a nice place to play. (B) The ships are in the sea. (C) Trees give us fruits.

Exercise 4: (A) Don't pluck the flowers in the park. (B) I have a pet cat. (C) We go to school by bus.

Exercise 5: (A) The teacher told us to be quiet. (B) We live in India. (C) Raj played cricket yesterday.

Exercise 6 (A) When we open the tap, water flows out. (B) We write with a pencil. (C) A tortoise moves slowly.

Exercise 7: (A) Do you want to come with me? (B) A shopkeeper sells many things. (C) We eat vegetables to be healthy.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 8

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

wearing sarees.

The girls are wearing frocks.

wearing trousers.

The women are

The boys are

Exercise 9

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

are vegetables.

Cats and dogs

Potato and carrot

are fruits.

are pets.

Oranges and apples

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 10

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

is yellow.

are in the sky.

Birds and stars

We can find tigers

in a forest.

My school bus

Exercise 11

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Dogs are happy

our home.

Dogs have sharp teeth.

when they get bones to chew.

Dogs guard

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 12

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

I have breakfast before

I have lunch

I get up early and brush my teeth.

going to school.

in the afternoon.

Exercise 13

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

tails and horns.

from seeds.

Elephants have

tails and tusks.

Cows have

Plants grow

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 14

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

A tailor cuts cloth

with an axe.

with a sharp knife.

We cut trees

We cut vegetables

with scissors.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Answers

Exercise 8: (A) The boys are wearing trousers. (B) The women are wearing sarees. (C) The girls are wearing frocks.

Exercise 9: (A) Oranges and apples are fruits. (B) Potato and carrot are vegetables. (C) Cats and dogs are pets.

Exercise 10: (A) My school bus is yellow. (B) We can find tigers in a forest. (C) Birds and stars are in the sky.

Exercise 11: (A) Dogs have sharp teeth. (B) Dogs guard our home. (C) Dogs are happy when they get bones to chew.

Exercise 12: (A) I get up early and brush my teeth. (B) I have breakfast before going to school.
(C) I have lunch in the afternoon.

Exercise 13: (A) Plants grow from seeds. (B) Cows have tails and horns. (C) Elephants have tails and tusks.

Exercise 14: (A) We cut trees with an axe. (B) A tailor cuts cloth with scissors. (C) We cut vegetables with a sharp knife.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 15

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Elephant is the largest land animal.

ice cream and cakes.

Children like

cockroaches and rats.

I am afraid of

Exercise 16

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

We have bread and jam

delivers letters.

stitches cloth.

for breakfast.

A tailor

The postman

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 17

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

There is a bank

near my house.

national bird.

The grasshopper

is green.

Peacock is our

Exercise 18

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

fixed the pipes.

We go to a doctor

makes furniture.

The plumber

A carpenter

when we are not well.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 19

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

We swim in

We cannot wear jeans

a pool.

We don't have school

on Sundays.

to school.

Exercise 20

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

A tiger is in this zoo.

There is a tiger

The tiger chases a deer

and kills it.

a wild animal.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 22

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Are the boys in

They are going to watch

match today.

the playground?

There is no

a football match.

Exercise 23

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

We go to a barber

They are going

two sisters.

for a picnic.

Rekha has

to have our hair cut.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 24

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

on the table.

We keep books

the sofa.

We lie on

We sit on the bed.

Exercise 25

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

very sharp.

The boys are

play snakes and ladders.

playing cricket.

This knife is

Young children like to

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 26

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Snakes don't

We should be

tallest animal.

have legs.

kind to animals.

The giraffe is the

Exercise 27

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

far from my house.

My school is not things from market.

with soap.

We can buy many

We wash clothes

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 28

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

We buy stamps

from the post office.

at red light.

On festival days,

All vehicles stop

we decorate our home.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Answers

Exercise 22: (A) They are going to watch a football match. (B) Are the boys in the playground?
(C) There is no match today.

Exercise 23: (A) Rekha has two sisters. (B) They are going for a picnic. (C) We go to a barber to have our hair cut.

Exercise 24: (A) We keep books on the table. (B) We sit on the sofa. (C) We lie on the bed.

Exercise 25: (A) The boys are playing cricket. (B) Young children like to play snakes and ladders.
(C) This knife is very sharp.

Exercise 26: (A) We should be kind to animals. (B) The giraffe is the tallest animal. (C) Snakes don't have legs.

Exercise 27: (A) My school is not far from my house. (B) We can buy many things from market.
(C) We wash clothes with soap.

Exercise 28: (A) On festival days, we decorate our home. (B) All vehicles stop at red light.
(C) We buy stamps from post office.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 29

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

in dustbins.

A bakery sells

bread, biscuits and cakes.

We carry books

in a bag.

We put waste

Exercise 30

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

when somebody helps me.

All living

to make us laugh.

things grow.

Clowns do silly things

I always say 'thanks'

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 31

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Vegeterians don't

The brain helps us to think and remember.

We cannot live

without water.

eat meat.

Exercise 32

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

My sister is now ten years old.

the left side of my body.

I would become old.

After many years,

The heart is on

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 33

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

We should always drink clean water.

axe to cut trees.

We use water for cooking and cleaning utensils.

We use an

Exercise 34

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

old animals?

branches with leaves.

have thorns.

Some plants

Who takes care of

A tree has many

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 35

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

In summer, we

round water melon.

into four pieces.

He cut the red apple

drink a lot of water.

We bought a large

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Answers

Exercise 29: (A) We carry books in a bag. (B) We put waste in dustbins. (C) A bakery sells bread, biscuits and cakes.

Exercise 30: (A) I always say thanks when somebody helps me. (B) All living things grow.
(C) Clowns do silly things to make us laugh.

Exercise 31: (A) Vegetarians don't eat meat. (B) We cannot live without water.
(C) The brain helps us to think and remember.

Exercise 32: (A) My sister is now ten years old. (B) The heart is on the left side of my body.
(C) After many years, I would become old.

Exercise 33: (A) We use water for cooking and cleaning utensils. (B) We should always drink clean water.
(C) We use an axe to cut trees.

Exercise 34: (A) Who takes care of old animals? (B) Some plants have thorns. (C) A tree has many branches with leaves.

Exercise 35: (A) In summer, we drink a lot of water. (B) He cut the red apple into four pieces.
(C) We bought a large round watermelon.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 36

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

bigger than a cat.

than a dog.

than a dog.

A dog is

A rat is smaller

A cow is taller

Exercise 37

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Who is the tallest

My father is taller than my mother.

than my sister.

person in this house?

Grandma is older

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 38

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

cutting vegetables.

Raj fell sick and

and tails.

People are busy

was taken to a doctor.

Fish have fins

Exercise 39

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Renjith

We were happy when our drives a car.

The caller told me

to take down a message.

uncle gave us presents.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 40

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

belongs to Rita.

There are two dogs

The mouse is hiding in

This necklace

in this house.

a hole.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Answers

Exercise 36: (A) A rat is smaller than a dog. (B) A cow is taller than a dog. (C) A dog is bigger than a cat.

Exercise 37: (A) My father is taller than my mother. (B) Grandma is older than my sister.
(C) Who is the tallest person in this house?

Exercise 38: (A) Raj fell sick and was taken to a doctor. (B) Fish have fins and tails. (C) People are busy cutting vegetables.

Exercise 39: (A) Renjith drives a car. (B) We were happy when our uncle gave us presents.
(C) The caller told me to take down a message.

Exercise 40: (A) This necklace belongs to Rita. (B) There are two dogs in this house. (C) The mouse is hiding in a hole.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 41

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

two children.

Rohit and I study

at the same school.

are girls.

We have

Both our children

Exercise 42

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

are brown.

too small for me.

This shirt is

green and yellow feathers.

This bird has

These shoes

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 43

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Aunt Sheela and Leela

We must obey our elders.

We bought three

packets of biscuits.

went to France.

Exercise 44

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

The forest officers

from the zoo.

a young deer.

caught the tiger.

The old tiger chased

A tiger escaped

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 45

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

always dirty.

went for a picnic.

this morning.

Her clothes are

Reena, along with her friends,

I saw an elephant

Exercise 46

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

eating fish.

is very smart.

The cat is busy

My dog

smart dogs.

She has two

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 47

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

The deer ran fast

the deer.

A tiger saw in danger.

The deer was to escape from the tiger.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Answers

Exercise 41: (A) Both our children are girls. (2) We have two children. (3) Rohit and I study at the same school.

Exercise 42: (A) This shirt is too small for me. (B) These shoes are brown. (C) This bird has green and yellow feathers.

Exercise 43: (A) Aunt Sheela and Leela went to France. (B) We bought three packets of biscuits. (C) We have two children.

Exercise 44: (A) The forest officers caught the tiger. (B) A tiger escaped from the zoo.
(C) The old tiger chased a young deer.

Exercise 45: (A) Rena, along with her friends, went for a picnic. (B) Her clothes are always dirty.
(C) I saw an elephant this morning.

Exercise 46: (A) The cat is busy eating fish. (B) She has two smart dogs. (C) My dog is very smart.

Exercise 47: (A) The deer ran fast to escape from the tiger. (B) A tiger saw the deer. (C) The deer was in danger.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 48

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

he didn't know swimming.

and he swims in a river.

Rahim was unhappy because

He went to a pool and learnt swimming.

He is a good swimmer now

Exercise 49

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

The dog jumped with joy

John was going away

was very sad.

on a tour.

His pet dog

when John came back.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 50

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Only six students in the

There are forty- three students

class know swimming.

The school is now

in the class.

constructing a swimming pool.

Exercise 51

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

a heavy suitcase.

Mumbai by train.

Mohan was carrying

He got off the train

He was going to

when it reached Mumbai.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 52

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

He answered all the questions

He rushed home to tell his mother about his performance.

the teacher asked.

he could catch the school bus.

The boy woke up late but

Exercise 53

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

from the library.

She is a member

She loves reading all

She borrows books

of a library.

types of books.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 54

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Finally, the train

We took care to reach the hours and we were bored.

came and we got in.

station in time.

The train was late by two

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Answers

Exercise 48: (A) Rahim was unhappy because he didn't know swimming. (B) He went to a pool to learn swimming.
(C) He is a good swimmer now and he swims in a river.

Exercise 49: (A) John was going away on a tour. (B) His pet dog was very sad.
(C) The dog jumped with joy when John came back.

Exercise 50: (A) There are forty-three students in the class. (B) Only six students in the class know swimming.
(C) The school is now constructing a swimming pool.

Exercise 51: (A) Mohan was carrying a heavy suitcase. (B) He was going to Mumbai by train.
(C) He got off the train when it reached Mumbai.

Exercise 52: (A) The boy woke up late but he could catch the school bus.
(B) He answered all the questions the teacher asked.
(C) He rushed home to tell his mother about his performance.

Exercise 53: (A) She is a member of a library. (B) She loves reading all types of books.
(C) She borrows books from the library.

Exercise 54: (A) We took care to reach the station in time. (B) The train was late by two hours and we were bored.
(C) Finally, the train came and we got in.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 55

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

the rules of the game.

However, Raj was busy

asked him to get out of the class.

The teacher got angry and

The teacher was explaining talking to his friend.

Exercise 56

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

went to Japan to sing.

He sang there and got lots of money.

With some of that money, he bought a beautiful red shirt.

Vivek is a singer and he

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 57

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Now he is old and he

for many years.

Vivek lived in Japan

He always tells stories about

has come back to India.

his life in Japan.

Exercise 58

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Raj buys a packet of biscuits

Dev is happy and

He gives the packet of

from a bakery.

biscuits to his friend, Dev.

he eats the biscuits.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 59

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

She is packing her clothes

She is going to

She takes a taxi

Delhi by plane.

in a suitcase.

to go to airport.

Exercise 60

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

We are shifting to cracks in the wall.

the old building leaks.

a new building in April.

This old building has

In rainy season,

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 61

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

This is the biggest

Both the young and the old

There are hundreds of books

library in the town.

use the library.

in this library.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Answers

Exercise 55: (A) The teacher was explaining the rules of the game. (B) However, Raj was busy talking to his friend.
(C) The teacher got angry and asked Raj to get out of the class.

Exercise 56: (A) Vivek is a singer and he went to Japan to sing. (B) He sang there and got lots of money.
(C) With some of that money, he bought a beautiful red shirt.

Exercise 57: (A) Vivek lived in Japan for many years. (B) He always tells stories about his life in Japan.
(C) Now he is old and has come back to India.

Exercise 58: (A) Raj buys a packet of biscuits. (B) He gives the packet of biscuits to his friend, Dev.
(C) Dev is happy and he eats the biscuits.

Exercise 59: (A) She is packing her clothes in a suitcase. (B) She is going to Delhi by plane.
(C) She takes a taxi to go to airport.

Exercise 60: (A) This old building has cracks in the wall. (B) In rainy season, the old building leaks.
(C) We are shifting to a new building in April.

Exercise 61: (A) This is the biggest library in the town. (B) Both the young and the old use the library.
(C) There are hundreds of books in this library.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 62

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Most of us have lunch

There is a nice canteen

in the library building.

We have snacks

in the evening.

in the canteen.

Exercise 63

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

students answer correctly.

We have not studied enough

When students write wrong

Teachers are happy when

for the test.

answers, teachers are sad.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 64

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

My mother buys vegetables

An old man comes in a van

Many come to our house

from the old man.

because my mother is a great cook.

to sell vegetables.

Exercise 65

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

Geetha is a runner who

She has to be healthy

She prefers food cooked at has won many medals.

to take part in the races.

home because she wants to be healthy.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 66

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

in this town.

on the top of a small hill.

Rita has lots of friends and they often come to this beautiful house.

Her house ,which is huge, is

Rita is one of the wealthiest

Exercise 67

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

with the arrangements.

Friends and relatives of Mohan entertained the guests.

All the guests were happy

Famous singers and dancers attended his son's wedding.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 68

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

A theft took

The priests gave a description

the police and they were caught.

place in a temple.

of the thieves to the police.

The thieves were not as smart as

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Answers

Exercise 62: (A) There is a nice canteen in the library building. (B) Most of us have lunch in the canteen.
(C) We have snacks in the evening.

Exercise 63: (A) We have not studied enough for the test. (B) When students write wrong answers, teachers are sad.
(C) Teachers are happy when students answer correctly.

Exercise 64: (A) An old man comes in a van to sell vegetables. (B) My mother buys vegetables from the old man.
(C) Many come to our house because my mother is a great cook.

Exercise 65: (A) Geetha is a runner who has won many medals. (B) She has to be healthy to take part in races.
(C) She prefers food cooked at home because she wants to be healthy.

Exercise 66: (A) Rita is one of the wealthiest in this town. (B) Her house, which is huge, is on the top of a small hill.
(C) Rita has lots of friends and they come to this beautiful house.

Exercise 67: (A) Friends and relatives of Mohan attended his son's wedding.
(B) All the guests were happy with the arrangements.
(C) Famous singers and dancers entertained the guests.

Exercise 68: (A) A theft took place in a temple. (B) The priests gave a description of the thieves to the police.
(C) The thieves were not as smart as the police and they were caught.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 69

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

and was carried away in a stretcher.

switch off the fan?

Why didn't the children

Did a witch eat the sandwich which was kept in the kitchen?

Ram hurt his leg when he fell in a ditch

Exercise 70

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

him from the cold.

with a powerful kick.

The thick blanket protected

He found a beautiful shell

Messi tricked the goalkeeper

on the seashore.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 71

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

to solve the problem.

to cross the river.

People found it difficult

He kept in the fridge, the dozen

He thought hard

eggs he had brought this morning.

Exercise 72

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

It was a pleasure to

under a building.

The teacher didn't pressurise

watch Sachin Tendulkar play.

Raj found a treasure buried

the children to write fast.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 73

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

pepper in the dish.

The farmer shouted to scatter ship is very clever.

The skipper of this

There was too much

the birds which were eating the grains.

Exercise 74

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

without completing the homework.

to relax than a park.

The postman carried many

He didn't want to face the teacher

The top of a mountain is a better place

letters but he didn't get any.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 75

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

He wondered where the shattered the silence of the night.

sound was coming from.

the flock of birds.

The loud barking of the dogs

The sound of gunfire scattered

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Answers

Exercise 69: (A) Did a witch eat the sandwich which was kept in the kitchen? (B) Why didn't the children switch off the fan?
(C) Ram hurt his leg when he fell in a ditch and was carried away in a stretcher.

Exercise 70: (A) thick blanket protected him from the cold. (B) Messi tricked the goalkeeper with a powerful kick.
(C) He found a beautiful shell on the seashore.

Exercise 71: (A) People found it difficult to cross the river. (B) He thought hard to solve the problem.
(C) He kept in the fridge, the dozen eggs he had brought this morning.

Exercise 72: (A) The teacher didn't pressurise the children to write fast.
(B) It was a pleasure to watch Sachin Tendulkar play. (C) Raj found a treasure buried under a building.

Exercise 73: (A) The farmer shouted to scatter the birds which were eating the grains.
(B) The skipper of this ship is clever. (C) There was too much pepper in the dish.

Exercise 74: (A) He didn't want to face the teacher without completing the homework.
(B) The top of a mountain is a better place to relax than a park.
(C) The postman carried many letters but he didn't get any.

Exercise 75: (A) He wondered where the sound was coming from.
(B) The loud barking of the dogs shattered the silence of the night.
(C) The sound of gunfire scattered the flock of birds.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 76

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

The elephant is strong enough

using a steel scale.

to pull down this tree.

There isn't enough room

for all of us in the car.

He drew straight lines

Exercise 77

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

and his car dashed against a tree.

because I went to sleep late.

we cannot sleep as she snores loudly.

I am tired this morning

The driver slept while he was driving

We like our grandma but

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 78

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

The puppy is moaning

because her mother had hidden them.

because they were curious about it.

because it is feeling lonely.

Leena couldn't find the toffees

The kittens were in the washing machine

Exercise 79

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

the light green leather jacket.

When the police came, the thief was playing cards with his friends.

He has been working in the hot sun

He looks smart in the jeans and

and his body is covered with sweat.

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Sentence Strips - Make Three Sentences (Without Colour Clues)

Exercise 80

Join the strips to make three sentences (without colour clues)

I am invited to the wedding

Finally, I went to a shop and bought of a famous actor.

suitable dress but I couldn't find any.

a new dress as I wanted to look smart.

I searched my cupboard for a

Hint: The strip that begins with a capital letter is the beginning part of the sentence. The strip with a full stop is the end part of the sentence. There are three sentences. Every sentence has two strips.

Answers

Exercise 76: (A) He drew straight lines using a steel scale.

(B) There isn't enough room for all of us in the car. (C) The elephant is strong enough to pull down this tree.

Exercise 77: (A) The driver slept while he was driving and his car dashed against a tree.

(B) I'm tired this morning because I went to sleep late.

(C) We like our grandma but we cannot sleep as she snores loudly.

Exercise 78: (A) The kittens were in the washing machine because they were curious about it.

(B) Leena couldn't find the toffees because her mother had hidden them.

(C) The puppy is moaning because it is feeling lonely.

Exercise 79: (A) He has been working in the hot sun and his body is covered with sweat.

(B) He looks smart in the jeans and the light green leather jacket.

(C) When the police came, the thief was playing cards with his friends.

Exercise 80: (A) I am invited to the wedding of a famous actor.

(B) I searched in my cupboard for a suitable dress but I couldn't find any.

(C) Finally, I went to a shop and bought a new dress as I wanted to look smart.